

Livestock General Rules 2022

1. The Cleburne County Fair is open to all residents of Cleburne County or any member of a Cleburne County FFA, FHA, 4-H, or Extension Homemakers Club. For 2020 due to Covid 19 and all the cancelled fairs, we will allow residents from neighboring counties to show with us. These rules will pertain guest county exhibitors as well.
2. An exhibitor in the junior division is a person 19 years of age or younger. The Open division is open to exhibitors of any age. The Open show is limited to Registered Breeding Animals only with the exception of the poultry department.
3. All cattle must be accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection issued with ninety (90) days of the date of the fair. The Cleburne County Fair reserves the right to have a blood and urine laboratory analysis made for any animal at the fair.
4. All exhibitors of market animals exhibited at the Cleburne County Fair will abide by all rules and regulations of the Arkansas State Fair & Livestock Show. All market animals shall be ear tagged or permanently tattooed before being shown.
5. Animals must be owned by exhibitor by July 1, 2022 prior to date of exhibit. No exceptions and proof of ownership may be requested.
6. All breeding cattle, swine, and sheep must be purebred or acceptable breed composites. Hybrid breeding animals are permitted in market or appropriate crossbred breeding classes only.
7. Entries will be online and must be completed between August 15 thru August 30, 2022. See link for online entries under our website at www.cleburnecofair.com . If mailing entry fees, they must be mailed to PO BOX 451 Heber Springs, Arkansas 72543 and will need to be postmarked by August 27, 2022.
8. There is a $5 per head entry fee for cattle, and $3 per head for sheep, goats and hogs. Running water is in the barn. No premium check will be issued if exhibitor fails to clean their area. To enter the open show there is a $5 per head for cattle, and $3 per head for sheep, goats, and hogs. Entry fee for poultry are $1 per cage for juniors and $2 per cage for seniors.
9. Jeans, nice long sleeve shirts and boots are proper attire during judging. Tennis shoes and ball caps will not be worn during judging.
10. All animals in junior and senior showmanship competitions must be owned by the exhibitor competing in the showmanship competition. On Saturday, All Around Showmanship will only be for Cleburne County residents.
11. The judge's decision will be final and there can be no appeals. Judges shall be impartial judges chosen by the Overall Livestock Superintendent and Livestock Committee of the Cleburne County Fair, with the assistance of the respective superintendents and the Cooperative Extension Service.
12. Criticizing or interfering with the judges, other exhibitors or show officials while attending the Cleburne County Fair may result in an individual or group being expelled, placed on probation or declared ineligible at the Cleburne County Fair. The fair may also withhold from such exhibitor premiums that may have been awarded.
13. Dogs will not be allowed on the fairgrounds with the exception of Service dogs. Proper paperwork will be required.

14. In no event shall the Cleburne County Fair & Livestock Association officers or members be held liable for loss, damage, or injury to persons, livestock, or other property when said persons, livestock or other property are on the fairgrounds.
15. The Cleburne County Fair & Livestock Association officers or members will not be responsible for damage to any exhibit.
16. All announcements made in this publication are subject to change and the Association reserves the right to make such changes at any time. We reserve the right to ask anyone not adhering to our rules to leave the fairgrounds at any time.
17. The total number of points awarded exhibits will be divided into the entire premium money to determine the value of each point.
18. Interpretation of Rules - The Association reserves to its management the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or connected with the Show, and the right to amend or add to these rules as it's judgment may determine.
19. Exhibitors may only receive premium from one county fair.
20. Exhibitors must be a resident of or own land in Cleburne County, or be a member of Cleburne County 4-H (active member) or FFA to be eligible to participate in the livestock auction.
